NUMB. 3153

MONDAY APRIL 16, 1744.

Shew our last arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.

Constantinople, February 6.

It was observed, immediately after the Conclusion of the Treaty of Belgrade, that it would be found impracticable to execute it, as to an Island in the River Unna. According to the Letter of that Treaty, the Island was to belong to the Queen of Hungary; but, according to the Spirit of the Kingdom of Bosnia. Upon this Footing the late Convention was made, by which the Queen, as a Mark for the Friendship of the Porte, quits all claim to the said Island; as the Grand Signor, on the other hand, confirms the Treaty of Belgrade. The Cham of Crim Tartars being lately deposed by the "Grand Order," Selim Guirai, Son to Caplou Guirai, is raised to that Dignity, and made his Public Entry into the City on the 20th of last Month.

St. Petersburg, March 20. The Festivals, which the Emperor intends to celebrate at Moscow, on Account of the Peace with Sweden, are to begin the 5th of next Month, to continue till the 25th, the Anniversary of her Imperial Majesty's Coronation; and it is generally believed, in the beginning of May, her Majesty will go to General Lubras, who was some Time ago appointed by her Imperial Majesty, her Minister to the Court of Sweden, remains still at Constantinople.

Paris, April 4. This Court received two Days ago a Letter from the Marquis de Suze, with Advice, that French and Spanish Armies were passing the Var, in full March for attacking the County of Nice. His Majesty's advanced Posts on the Borders of the County, after spending a few Shot on the first Troops that were retired, according to their Orders, towards the Entrenchments; and by an Ekstafette arrived from the last Night, it is to be presumed the Enemy is pushed into the Town; which being incapable of making any Defence, must have opened its Gates. We shall see, whether they proceed to the Attack of Montebello, or will not rather endeavour to go round by the upper Part of the Mountains, and try to cut themselves off from the Posts in the Rear with Part of their Troops, while the other takes the Entrenchments in the Front. Prince Lobkowitz was on the 5th past at Fermo, in Expectation of Orders from the last Courier from Rome has brought an Account, that his Sicilian Majesty was actually at the Head of his Troops, and would immediately join M. de Richcourt, who is appointed to succeed Count Kunitz, as Minister from the Queen of Hungary to this Court, arrived here on Wednesday last.

Paris, April 6. We hear from Villa Franca, that Admiral Matthews, with the British Fleet under his Command, was every Hour expected there; that the Antelope and Nonuch were just arrived; and that the former, with the Dartmouth, had been immediately sent to St. Tropez, where three British Men of War were actually blockading a Convoy of 14 Transports, three French Gallies laden with Troops, and destined for St. Auspice, on the other Side of the Castle of Villa Franca, and from whence both that Fort and the Entrenchments might have been taken in the Rear.

Amsterdam, April 21. Messrs. Trauman, Schryer, and others, are promoted to the three vacant Flags belonging to the Department of the College of Admiralty of that Place.

Amsterdam, April 21. N. S. In Consequence of Mr. de Voer's Memorial of the 14th Instant, four Provinces have already consented to grant a Secour of twenty Men of War to his Britannick Majesty, in pursuance of the Treaty; and the final Conclusion of that Affair is only postponed for a Day or two, in Expectation of the Consent of the remaining Provinces. Count Nassau, Commander in Chief of the Dutch Forces in the Netherlands, let out Yesterday upon his Journey thither. M. de Voer, the French Minister, is hourly expected here. Letters from Dunkirk, of the 14th Instant, we have received, that the Embargo having been taken off there on the Sunday Morning before, the Vessels of all Nations were released, except those belonging to the Emperor.

Extra from a Private Letter.

Paris, April 17. The Court has received Letters from Petersburg, Frankfort, Madrid, Berlin, and the Hague, with all of which they seem equally pleased, the Contents of none of them are known with certainty.

It is reported that the M. de la Chetardie succeeds as well as was expected in his Commission; and that the Court of Russia is resolved to unravel the Affair of Holstein, notwithstanding the Peace between Sweden and Denmark, and Conventions made on that Subject with other Crowns.

His Imperial Majesty will indubitably undertake something shortly of Importance, the States of the Empire being much inclined to assist him; and, if once he is restored to Bavaria, we shall easily deal with the Austrians.

Our Minister in Spain has been very hard pressed, and to deliver him we declared War a good deal sooner than was intended. His Catholick Majesty went so far as to threaten joining the English, and attacking our Sugar Colonies, if we did not.

We fancy we have as much Weight with Prussia as ever. Count de Rottenburgh is gone with an Expedition, which we flatter ourselves will satisfy the King as to the Command of the Army of Neutrality.

The Marquis de Fenelon has Orders (as I long ago informed you he would) to go to the Hague, and take his Leave of the States General. It is believed he will do it by Memorial, and this it is thought will be a very curious and solid Piece.

An Order has been sent to the Chevalier Chamilli to sail immediately from Brest, with 13 Men of War of the Line, on a second Secret Expedition, of which the Court has great Hopes.

Cardinal Tencin lately told a Foreign Minister, that War would be declared Speedily against the Queen of Hungary and the King of Sardinia, and, perhaps, also against another Power.

A very strict Inquiry is making into the Robbery of the Courier, between Provence and Lyons. It is certainly a Stroke of Politics, but whether by order of the Courts of Madrid or Turin is the Question.

Actions 1955.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, April 12. Wind S. W. Arrived his Majesty's Ship the Princess Mary, from a Cruise; and the Queen of Hungary, Blackburne, from Jamaica, last from Virginia, and remains with the Sapphire and Torrington Men of War.

Deal, April 14. Wind E. This Morning his Majesty's Ship the Princess Mary sailed to the Westward. Remain his Majesty's Ships the Sapphire and Torrington, and the Good Samaritan Tender.

Gravesend, April 13. Passed by the Elizabeth, Thomas, from Norway.

Arrived at several Ports.

At Dunkirk, the St. John, Vermege, from Mentze. At Castlehaven, the Orange, Waters, from Philadelphia for Cork.

At Portland, the John, Gray, from Maryland; who, on the 7th Instant, about Ten in the Morning, in Latitude 48: 13: fell in with the Brest Squadron, consisting of 13 Ships, who brought him 100 with this Salute; "D—m you, you Rascal, hoist your Boat out, and come aboard, or we'll sink you;" in as good English as ever I heard spoke at the Royal Exchange: But it blew so excessive hard, that there Boat could not live in such a Sea. They kept him a long Side of them, and under their Quarter, about four Hours; but the Wind increasing, could not board him. Night coming on, gave him an Opportunity to get clear of them, which accordingly he did, and saw no more of them. He was chased afterwards on to Portland Road by a French Privateer.

L O N D O N.

Some Letters from Italy say, that Prince Lobkowitz has dismissed a great Body of Croats, who are on their March back to their own Country; which, at this juncture, occasions some Speculation.

The States of Hungary, who have finished their Deliberations at Pest, are risen so, that it is not known whether the Queen of Hungary will go to Presburgh this Year or not.

We have a very pompous Account in the Brussels Gazette, of the Inauguration of her Hungarian Majesty, as Sovereign of the Austrian Netherlands, which solemnity was performed on the 9th Instant.

The Powers, from Oporto for London, by hard Gales of Wind, and thick Weather, fell in with the Rocks near Uthant on the 27th of March; and was afterwards drove into Doranemex, near Brest.

On Saturday last Mr. John Porter, an eminent Merchant of this City, was married at Twickenham, in the County of Middlesex, to Miss Ann Amyand, of Castle-street, near Leicester Fields, a most agreeable Lady, with a very considerable Fortune; the eldest Daughter of the late Claudius Amyand, Esq; deceased, who was Sergeant Surgeon to his late and present Majesty.

This Day a Court of Admiralty will be held at Doctors Commons, for the Trial of the several Prizes taken by the Kinsale, Dreadnought, and Sheerness Men of War, which are brought into the Port of London.

Yesterday being the first Sunday in Term, the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, with the Judges, &c. went to St. Paul's; and, after Divine Service, proceeded from thence to Clothworkers-Hall, in Mining Lane; where an Entertainment was given by Sir Robert Ladbroke, Knt. one of the Sheriffs, on that Occasion.

Yesterday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, who then entered into the 24th Year of his Age, his Majesty received the Compliments of the Nobility and Gentry on that Occasion; as did also his Royal Highness the Duke.

On Thursday last George Venables Vernon, Esq; Member of Parliament for Litchfield, was married to the Hon. Miss Harcourt, Sister to the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Harcourt; after the Ceremony was over, the New-married Couple set out for Sidbury in Derbyshire.

Last Saturday Night, the Right Hon. the Lord Carteret, was married to the Hon. Miss Farmer, Daughter to the Right Hon. Thomas Earl of Pomfret. The Ceremony was performed at the Earl of Pomfret's House.

General Poultney is set out for Hull, in Yorkshire, in order to stand Candidate for that Place, in the room of William Carter, Esq; deceased.

The Right Hon. the Lord Bishop of London, Dean of his Majesty's Chapel Royal, has appointed Mr. Mingo of Litchfield, and Mr. Savage, to be Gentlemen of his Majesty's Chapel, in the room of Mr. Francis Hughes, deceased, who held two Places.

A few Days since died at his House near Lincoln, aged 109 Years, being born the 28th of March 1635, Isaac Basset, Esq; who was possessed of an Estate of 1100*l.* per Annum. He was in London at the Time King Charles the First was tried before the High Court of Justice.

Last Friday Night some Rogues endeavouring to rob some Gentlemen coming out of Covent-Garden Playhouse, a Skirmish ensued between the Guards and the Pickpockets, in which some Shot were fired, and a poor Chairman was unhappily killed. His Name was John Wilks, and lived in Brewer's-Street, by Golden-Square.

From the London Gazette.

Admiralty Office, April 14. His Majesty's Ship the Fox, being upon a Cruise on the Coast of Portugal, fell in, on the 14th of last Month, about 20 Leagues to the Westward of the Buriings, with the famous Privateer Schooner belonging to Bayonne, which is said to out-sail every Privateer in Galicia, and, after a Chase of five Hours, took her. She mounted six Carrage Guns, six large Brass Swivel Guns of three Pounders, and 12 Iron Patereroes, and carried 80 Men.

His Majesty's Ship the Sapphire, commanded by Captain Saunders, took off of Ostend, on the 7th Instant, a Galliot Hoy from Dantzick, bound to Dunkirk, having on board 193 Officers and Soldiers, and about 60 Arms, for the Service of the French King. The Officers and Men were raised for the Service of Count Lowendabl's Regiment at Dunkirk.

Notwithstanding any former Orders, or any Advertisements in the Gazette, or other public Papers, the Three Regiments of his Majesty's Foot Guards are at Liberty to receive Volunteers from the Commissioners, in all the Counties where they shall think proper to send to Recruit.

By Command of the Field-Marshal
Earl of STAIR,
C. Emsen, Dep. Adj. Gen.

Admiralty-Office, April 14. 1744.
THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being desirous to invite and encourage Able-bodied Landmen to serve on board his Majesty's Ships of War, and having Reason to hope, that from the Willingness several have shewn to do so, many more would come and enter, if they were rightly inform'd of the Methods of going about it, and of the Encouragement the Law allows them; their Lordships do hereby publish and advise, that all such Able-bodied Landmen, as are not under the Age of Nineteen, nor more than Thirty-five Years, who are willing to serve his Majesty at Sea, do go before some Justice of the Peace, Magistrate of a Town, or a Commission Officer of the Fleet, who are hereby desired to give them a Certificate of the Day of their Appearance, and of their declaring to them their Intentions to repair on board a Man of War, and at what Port; which Certificate shall protect them for a reasonable Time to proceed to the said Port: And when they arrive there, if the Port be Chatham, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, they are to present themselves to the Commissioners of the Navy; but if they come to London, they are to apply to the Regulating Captains, at the Castle in Mark-lane, which Commissioners and Regulating Captains have Directions to send them on board such Ships of War as they shall choose to serve in: And for their Encouragement to enter into his Majesty's Service, they shall enter into Pay from the Day of the Date of the Certificate of their Entry; And shall be allowed a Penny a Mile Conduct Money, from the Place they set out from; and also shall receive an Advance of Five and Thirty Shillings before the Ship they go on board proceeds to Sea.

The only true Specifick Chymical Liquor

For Dissolving and bringing away the Stone, without the Kidneys, Ureters or Bladder; and in curing the Strangury, and all Heat, Pain, or Difficulty in making Water.

THE very first Dose of it gives Ease in a Moment, even in the most violent either Stone or GRAVEL, and at once entirely cures the Stone, and all Heat, Pain, and Difficulty of Urine; it dilates the Ureters, makes them free from the Crumbings of large Stones, together with the Gravel, may pass freely from the Bladder, and be voided with Urine without Pain; effectually cures the Bladder, and all Urinary Passages from gritty Calculi, &c. heals all internal Excoriations or Sores, and directly takes off all Pain in the Back, and those like the Cholick, and may be dependant upon the Stones, so as infallibly to cure that most miserable Stone.

It gives such sudden and unspeakable Relief, that ever taken but one Dose of it, will be thoroughly cured of its surprising Efficacy, which many Hundreds have experienced to their infinite Satisfaction.

It is such an agreeable Diuretic and powerful that it infallibly prevents the Stone in those who are with Gravel only; and for the perfect Cure of the Gravel, and all Disorders of the Kidneys, &c. it is occasioned thereby; is the only true Specifick that can be surely and safely rely'd upon, as it is as soon as taken, (even when nothing else will) it accomplishes a perfect Cure without the least Trouble to the Patient, agreeable to the Stone, and pleasant to the whole Body. It is to be had only of the woman at the Sign of the Crown, or against the Sign in Coleman street, near Cheap-side, London: and is to be seal'd up with Printed Directions at large.
